First Reading: Is 50:4-9a

The Lord GOD has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word.
 Morning by morning he wakens—wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught. The Lord GOD has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backward.
 I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting. The Lord GOD helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame; he who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me. It is the Lord GOD who helps me; who will declare me guilty? All of them will wear out like a garment; the moth will eat them up.

Second Reading: Ph 2:5-11

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God,
     did not regard equality with God
     as something to be exploited,
 but emptied himself,
     taking the form of a slave,
     being born in human likeness.
 And being found in human form,
     he humbled himself
     and became obedient to the point of death—
     even death on a cross.
 Therefore God also highly exalted him
     and gave him the name
     that is above every name,
 so that at the name of Jesus
     every knee should bend,
     in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
 and every tongue should confess
     that Jesus Christ is Lord,
     to the glory of God the Father.

Psalm 31:9-16

9 Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I am in trouble; *
 my eye is consumed with sorrow, and also my throat and my belly.

10 For my life is wasted with grief,
 and my years with sighing; *
 my strength fails me because of affliction, and my bones are consumed.

11 I have become a reproach to all my enemies and even to my neighbours, a dismay to those of my acquaintance; * when they see me in the street they avoid me.

12 I am forgotten like a dead man, out of mind; *
 I am as useless as a broken pot.

13 For I have heard the whispering of the crowd;
 fear is all around; * they put their heads together against me; they plot to take my life.

14 But as for me, I have trusted in you, O Lord. *
 I have said, “You are my God.

15 My times are in your hand; * rescue me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me.

16 Make your face to shine upon your servant, *
 and in your loving-kindness save me.”

17 Lord, let me not be ashamed for having called upon you; *
 rather, let the wicked be put to shame;
 let them be silent in the grave.

18 Let the lying lips be silenced which speak against the righteous, *haughtily, disdainfully, and with contempt.

19 How great is your goodness, O Lord!
 which you have laid up for those who fear you; *
 which you have done in the sight of all for those who put their trust in you.

Psalm Prayer (said together)

Helper of the helpless, comfort of the afflicted, may your servants who stand in the midst of evil find strength in the knowledge of your presence, and praise you for the wonders of your love; through Jesus Christ our Redeemer.
