Please pray for: All those who passed away and their families: Shirley and Terry; and also for all in sorrow, trouble, need, sickness or any other adversity. Please pray for those who are sick, including Hugh, Ken, Andrea, Lorna and Rev. Don. And all those who need our prayers.

First Reading: Acts 2:42-47

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

Second Reading: 1 Peter 2:19-25

For it is a credit to you if, being aware of God, you endure pain while suffering unjustly. If you endure when you are beaten for doing wrong, what credit is that? But if you endure when you do right and suffer for it, you have God's approval. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you should follow in his steps. "He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth." When he was abused, he did not return abuse; when he suffered, he did not threaten; but he entrusted himself to the one who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, so that, free from sins, we might live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed. For you were going astray like sheep, but now you have returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

Psalm 23

1 The Lord is my shepherd; *

I shall not be in want.

2 He makes me lie down in green pastures *
and leads me beside still waters.

3 He revives my soul *

and guides me along right pathways for his name's sake.

4 Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I shall fear no evil; ***

for you are with me;

your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

5 You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me; *

you have anointed my head with oil,

and my cup is running over.

6 Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, ***

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Psalm Prayer (said together)

Glory to you, Jesus Christ, our good shepherd. In the waters of baptism you give us new birth, at your table you nourish us with heavenly food, and in your goodness and mercy, you guide us beyond the terrors of evil and death to your Father's home to dwell in eternal light. Glory to you for ever.

The Admiral Digby Museum will be holding a Cemetery Cataloguing Course May 27th for anyone interested in learning how to record, recognize the age of head stones, photograph, and learn how to [and how not to] care for head stones, plus many other interesting items of interest. We have asked Deborah Trask to give the course again as everyone who came to the first course was very pleased with the day's sessions. Deborah has over 30 years of experience as a Gravestone Preservation Advisor within the province. See poster for details & sign up sheets at back of church or contact the museum directly.
