The Epilepsy Association of NS will be holding its 3rd Annual Purple Hike for Epilepsy on Sunday, October 21st at the Digby Heritage Center. We start registration at 1:30 and registration is free! If you would like to raise funds for the Association to support education in schools, for employers, nursing homes and hospitals, resources to handout and start up for a support group for parents of children and for adults, you can obtain a pledge form from ed@epilepsyns.org or by calling Phyllis and Chris Thurber at 902-245-5498. Have a fun filled family day and help a great cause!

Music at Trinity: We are always happy to welcome new singers into the choir. This is an exciting time of year to join as we prepare special music for Advent and Christmas services and our Christmas concert "All Bells in Paradise". Practices are on Mondays from 6:30 pm to 8 pm. Please talk with Douglas, our Music Director, or any choir member if you have any questions.

Kitchen Party at Trinity: Saturday, October 27 from 2pm to 4pm. Entertainment, refreshments, games & prizes! Free-will offerings will go to the Food Bank and the annual Mission to Seafarers Christmas boxes. Sign up sheets at back of church.

Gospel Concert: On Eagles Wings Ministries with Noel and Beverly Facey – Please join us at Digby Baptist Church on Sunday, October 28, at 6:30 PM for an evening of Country, Southern and Old Time Gospel music! Everyone Welcome. Reception to follow.

MISSION TO SEAFARERS: Items are now being collected by the ACW for our annual Christmas Shoeboxes. Donation list is posted on the bulletin board at the back of the church. A container will be placed at the back of the church to place your donations. Thank you!

First Reading: Job 23:1-9, 16-17

Job Replies: My Complaint Is Bitter

Then Job answered:

“Today also my complaint is bitter;
his hand is heavy despite my groaning.
Oh, that I knew where I might find him,
that I might come even to his dwelling!
I would lay my case before him,
and fill my mouth with arguments.
I would learn what he would answer me,
and understand what he would say to me.
Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power?
No; but he would give heed to me.
There an upright person could reason with him,
and I should be acquitted forever by my judge.
“If I go forward, he is not there;
or backward, I cannot perceive him;
on the left he hides, and I cannot behold him;
I turn to the right, but I cannot see him.
God has made my heart faint;
the Almighty has terrified me;
If only I could vanish in darkness,
and thick darkness would cover my face!

Second Reading: Heb 4:12-16

Indeed, the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account. Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Psalm 22:1-15

1 My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? *
and are so far from my cry and from the words of my distress?
2 O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you do not answer; *
by night as well, but I find no rest.
3 Yet you are the Holy One, *
enthroned upon the praises of Israel.
4 Our forefathers put their trust in you; *
they trusted, and you delivered them.
5 They cried out to you and were delivered; *
they trusted in you and were not put to shame.
6 But as for me, I am a worm and no man, *
scorned by all and despised by the people.
7 All who see me laugh me to scorn; *
they curl their lips and wag their heads, saying,
8 “He trusted in the Lord; let him deliver him; *
let him rescue him, if he delights in him.”
9 Yet you are he who took me out of the womb, *
and kept me safe upon my mother’s breast.
10 I have been entrusted to you ever since I was born; *
you were my God when I was still in my mother’s womb.
11 Be not far from me, for trouble is near, *
and there is none to help.
12 Many young bulls encircle me; *
strong bulls of Bashan surround me.
13 They open wide their jaws at me, *
like a ravening and a roaring lion.
14 I am poured out like water; all my bones are out of joint; * my heart within my breast is melting wax.
15 My mouth is dried out like a pot-sherd; my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth; * and you have laid me in the dust of the grave.

Psalm Prayer (said together)

Father, your tortured Son felt abandoned, and cried out in anguish from the cross, yet you delivered him. He overcame the bonds of death and rose in triumph from the grave. Do not hide your face from those who cry out to you: feed the hungry, strengthen the weak, and break the chains of the oppressed, that your people may rejoice in your saving deeds. This we ask in the name of Jesus Christ our Saviour.
